Top 10 Caribbean Resorts

VACATIONPRO.CO

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

Pick your trip type. Skip the rest.

The Caribbean has hundreds of all-inclusive resorts. Most reviews are useless because the resort that ruins a couples trip can be perfect for a family of four. This guide breaks the picks down by who you're traveling with and what you actually want from the trip.

HOW WE RANKED THEM

THREE SIGNALS, WEIGHTED

1. Guest experience consistency. Hundreds of recent reviews and the rate of "wow" callouts in them. One viral video doesn't make a resort. Repeat happy travelers does.
2. Value at the price tier. Each pick has to feel premium for what it costs, not just "expensive and impressive."
3. VacationPro booking experience. What our concierge clients say after they're back. Real returns, real complaints, real second-trip behavior.

WHAT WE IGNORE

- Brand-funded "best of" lists.
- Single-trip influencer videos.
- Resorts that haven't refreshed photos or rates since 2022.

Pricing fluctuates daily. The hotel-only and package rates we quote in this guide were typical at the time of publication; reach out for current dates and rooms.

CATEGORY 1 OF 10

Best for couples

No kids, no group, just the two of you. The picks here have small adult-leaning sections, great food, and rooms with views worth paying for.

1. COUPLES TOWER ISLE, JAMAICA

OCHO RIOS · JAMAICA

Why this one

Adults-only all-inclusive built specifically for couples. The room blocks face the water, the on-site spa is included, and the resort is small enough that you'll recognize the same staff by day two. Couples is also the only brand we know of where the resort pricing is all-in — no upcharges on the restaurants or the bar.

Who it's for

- Couples who want quiet over crowd
- First-time Caribbean travelers who want to do nothing
- Honeymooners on a non-Sandals budget

VacationPro pick: oceanfront room block, dinner reservations booked at check-in

2. SANDALS ROYAL BAHAMIAN, BAHAMAS

NASSAU · BAHAMAS

Why this one

Best Sandals property if you've never done one. Two private islands, an over-water bungalow option, and the bar staff actually know what a martini is. Bahamas means no passport headaches for US travelers (though you still need one for the flight back).

Who it's for

- Couples on a special-occasion trip
- Travelers who want the over-water bungalow photo without a 20-hour flight

VacationPro pick: book the over-water suite at least 90 days out

CATEGORY 2 OF 10

Best for families

Kids' clubs that work. Pools with shaded areas. Buffets your nine-year-old will actually eat at. These picks scored highest with our families who came home and immediately booked again.

3. BEACHES TURKS & CAICOS, TURKS & CAICOS

PROVIDENCIALES · TURKS & CAICOS

Why this one

The gold standard of Caribbean family resorts. Sesame Street characters on site, four kids' clubs by age range, a water park, and parents can still get a real meal at the on-site French restaurant after lights-out. Expensive but everything is included down to the watersports.

Who it's for

- Families with kids 3–12
- Multi-generational trips (grandparents come too)
- Parents who want the resort to do the work

VacationPro pick: book a French Village room — best value for the family-suite layout

4. HYATT ZIVA CAP CANA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

PUNTA CANA AREA · DR

Why this one

If Beaches is the luxury family pick, Hyatt Ziva Cap Cana is the smart-value one. Same all-inclusive promise, much lower nightly rate, and the beach in Cap Cana is one of the better stretches in the DR. Family suites sleep up to six.

Who it's for

- Families who don't want to pay Beaches prices
- Families with older kids/teens (the resort has activities for them, not just little kids)

VacationPro pick: family suite with a balcony, book mid-week for the rate dip

CATEGORY 3 OF 10

Best adults-only

The whole resort is 18+. No kids running through the pool, no early-morning kids' club music. These picks scored highest on the "actually relaxing" metric.

5. SECRETS CAP CANA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

PUNTA CANA AREA · DR

Why this one

Adults-only, all-inclusive, and the food is actually good. Secrets resorts have the strictest brand standards in the all-inclusive category — bartenders trained, restaurants reservation-only, rooms cleaned twice daily. The Cap Cana property has the most beachfront of the Secrets lineup.

Who it's for

- Adults who want all-inclusive without "spring break energy"
- Anniversary trips and couples-only friend trips
- First-time visitors who want a guaranteed good experience

VacationPro pick: preferred club access, oceanfront swim-up suite

6. EXCELLENCE PUNTA CANA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

UVERO ALTO · DR

Why this one

Underrated. North of the main Punta Cana strip, which means quieter beach and fewer crowds. Same all-inclusive model as Secrets, similar price point, and the spa is one of the best in the region.

Who it's for

- Couples who want a slower pace
- Travelers who prefer "tucked away" over "right in the action"

VacationPro pick: club room block, late-departure flight to maximize the last day

CATEGORY 4 OF 10

Best for honeymoon & anniversary

The trip you're going to put on Instagram and the wall. These resorts deliver on the iconic Caribbean photo without trying too hard.

7. JADE MOUNTAIN, ST. LUCIA

SOUFRIÈRE · ST. LUCIA

Why this one

The "open fourth wall" rooms with private infinity pools and a view of the Pitons. There is no resort in the Caribbean that photographs like Jade Mountain. It's expensive, it's worth it, and it's a once-in-a-lifetime trip not a yearly one.

Who it's for

- Honeymoons, milestone anniversaries (10+ years)
- Once-in-a-lifetime trips with a real budget

VacationPro pick: Sanctuary or Star sanctuaries — the Pitons-facing rooms are the entire reason to come

CATEGORY 5 OF 10

Best for group trips

Six to twenty people. Bachelor or bachelorette parties, milestone-birthday groups, friend reunions. These resorts handle group bookings without falling apart.

8. HARD ROCK HOTEL PUNTA CANA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

PUNTA CANA · DR

Why this one

Built for energy. Multiple bars, on-site casino, nightclub, swim-up suites that fit a group, and the resort understands group bookings better than most. The pool scene during the day rivals the nightlife. Not subtle, not trying to be.

Who it's for

- Bachelorette and bachelor groups
- Milestone birthdays where everyone's flying in
- Friend groups who want music and a scene, not silence

VacationPro pick: rock-suite block + private cabana for the group; reserve the dinner at the steakhouse on night one

CATEGORY 6 OF 10

Best hidden gem

Smaller, harder to find, no chain affiliation. These pay off if you want something other people on the plane don't have on their itinerary.

9. PETIT ST. VINCENT, ST. VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES

GRENADINES · SVG

Why this one

115-acre private island, 22 cottages, no clocks in the rooms. You raise a flag if you want service and a different flag if you want to be left alone. This is the resort to know about that nobody is posting on Instagram.

Who it's for

- Repeat Caribbean travelers who've "done" the chains
- Couples who actively want to disconnect
- Anyone who values privacy over amenities

VacationPro pick: book midweek arrivals to get the lower beachfront cottages

CATEGORY 7 OF 10

Best for "no passport needed"

US Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico count as domestic travel. No passport required for US citizens, same flight-time-window as the Caribbean.

10. THE RITZ-CARLTON, ST. THOMAS, US VIRGIN ISLANDS

EAST END · ST. THOMAS · USVI

Why this one

USVI, no passport required, Ritz-level service, and the resort is on Great Bay which is one of the best beaches in the territory. Significantly cheaper than the comparable Caribbean Ritz properties because of the domestic flight pricing.

Who it's for

- Travelers without passports or with passports about to expire
- Couples and families who want Caribbean-quality without the international travel friction
- Last-minute bookings (less paperwork = more flexibility)

VacationPro pick: club-level room, southwest-facing for the sunset
